

Jack Bene
Biographical Information

Jack Bene is President of Electro-Specialties. He has an associate degree in Engineering Technology and a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Cleveland State University. Mr. Bene is a 6 time published author for the Institute of Electrical & Electronic Engineers and contributor for IEEE Red Book. He is a registered Professional Engineer in the State of Ohio and a National Electrical Code certified instructor. Mr. Bene is a member of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors, Western Reserve Division. He also works as an instructor for Electrification Council in its TEC Series.