

Bio for Kenneth (Ken) Linger

Ken graduated from Tri State College, Angola, Indiana, in 1973 with a B.S. in Civil Engineering. He has been with the Ohio Department of Transportation for 36 years. During his career at ODOT he has worked in the Bureau of Planning, Bureau of Maintenance and for the last 12 years in the Office of Traffic Engineering.

Currently Ken is one of ODOT's Maintenance of Traffic Engineers. In this capacity, he provides technical leadership, engineering expertise in establishing policy, standards, design, construction, safety, training and research in area of temporary traffic control; For the past nine years Ken has been responsible for performing all the maintenance of traffic field reviews for projects on the interstate and interstate lookalike systems along with assisting in the development of maintenance of traffic training courses and teaching those courses to ODOT personnel.

Ken is married with 3 children, a senior at the University of Toledo, a sophomore at Mount Vernon Nazarene University and a sophomore in high school....